

Chilly The Lost Little Snowboy Ornament

by Katherine Ann O'Brien

Phone 440-241-3126

Email : sizemore3630@aol.com

Chilly : The Lost Little Snowboy Ornament is a tale like none ever told. This heartwarming family story is about a little Christmas tree ornament that comes to life as well as the other ornaments on Sally's Christmas tree.

Chilly is Sally's favorite ornament and she takes him with her one day during the holiday season. Against the advice of the other ornaments, Chilly embarks on an adventure that allows him to see all the different things he can become.

Along the way, Chilly is lost from Sally's backpack and both Sally and Chilly are frantic as they search for each other. With the help of friends, Chilly decides what he wants to be and how precious home is.

Chilly

The Lost Little Snowboy Ornament

by Katherine Ann O'Brien

Chilly The Lost Little Snowboy Ornament is a story for the whole family. It is filled with adventure and fun and meaning and more!

CHARACTERS

Sally

Sally is decorating the family tree and her favorite ornament is CHILLY!
They love the fun things at Christmas time.

"And Chilly goes there! All done!" exclaimed Sally as she put Chilly where he always goes on the tree.
Chilly is Sally's favorite ornament.

During the night, the ornaments giggled and talked about how excited they were to see all the presents under the tree. Chilly said, "I want to have an adventure." "Oh, no," said the others.

The Ornaments

They magically come to life every night. Usually they laugh and talk about the upcoming holidays, but today, Chilly tells how he want to have an adventure!!

Sample Scenes Are :

Off they go

Sally is going away for the day. She wants to take Chilly along, so she takes him from the tree.

The next morning, Sally bundled up in her warm winter clothes. She said, "Let's go out and play, Chilly!" "Whoops," giggled Chilly as Sally tickled him taking him from the tree.

The two have so much fun in the snow. First, they make a snowman.

The other ornaments are worried about Chilly.

The others were afraid for Chilly, but Chilly was not afraid. He was having an adventure. He waved to his friends as Sally said, "I'm going to put a straw hat on him like yours, Chilly."

And Chilly also sees how some snowboys are cookies!

"Can I get a lot of cookies, mommy?" Sally was excited. Chilly saw all the cookies! He saw gingerbread boys, reindeer, Christmas trees, sleds, horses, snowmen, snowboys and more!

And Chilly is happy to be with Sally as they walk through the mall.

Sally held her mom's hand and they walked along.
Chilly felt stuffy, so he began to squeeze out of Sally's backpack...and, suddenly, out came Chilly's head....

But oh NO!
Chilly falls out of Sally's backpack!

...Chilly kept squeezing and squeezing...and out popped Chilly!
And, PLOP! He fell onto the floor!

He tries to cry out to Sally, but she keeps walking away!

...and, when Chilly sat up, he saw Sally and her mom far away.
They didn't even know he was not with them. "Wait," he called.

Chilly frantically tries to get to Sally!

Chilly raced through the crowd, dodging legs and sneakers. He was frantic as he tried to find Sally. "Come find me, Sally," he cried. But she did not come. "You dropped me," he shouted.

Chilly finds some friends that help him. Come, join the fun and see how Chilly finds Sally.

Then, Chilly saw the jack-in-the-box in the window waving to him, The others were talking, but he could not hear them. They looked friendly. Chilly hoped they could help.

T. Lee Sizemore and James Richard Highsmith

Partnered on this project. Rick is a paralyzed, disabled veteran and he cleverly drafted a heart-warming story about the dogs and them finding the true meaning of Christmas. He considers this a second chance at happiness in life after his tragic motorcycle accident.

