

Letter From Egypt

by Moira Andrew

Phone 440-241-3126

Email : sizemore3630@aol.com

Letter From Egypt is a tale like none ever told. This heartwarming family story is about a letter Mary may have drafted after all the events of the Birth of Jesus.

Mary drafts a letter to Miriam, the Inn Keeper, to thank her for all she did and recount the events of the First Nativity.

With illustrations to match the scenes of the times, the tender and eternal Story is retold from a young girl's perspective of the events and how grateful she is.

Letter From Egypt is a tender and heartwarming holiday story for everyone in the family and a great addition to the young library.

Moira Andrew
Letter from Egypt

illustrated by Alenka Trolovsek

Letter From Egypt is a story for the whole family. It is filled with adventure and fun and the true meaning of the season and more!

CHARACTERS

The Letter

This special little book opens with the author of the Letter – Mary – staring her Letter to Miriam.

How it All Began

The story reminds us how Mary and Joseph traveled to Bethlehem, the City of David, to pay taxes. We know Mary was with Child.

No Room

It reminds us how there was no room at he Inn.

So they were offered
room in the stable.

The Star
The story reminds us about His Star
and how brightly
it shone when He was born.

The Shepherds
that came to see the Newborn King

*And what about those kings, Miriam?
Kneeling there
in their rich
robes and all?
And me in nothing but my old blue dress!*

As well as the Three Kings that followed His Star

Come and remember how it all worked out!

Moira Andrew is a travelling poet and children's author who was born and educated in Scotland. She has worked in most areas of primary education as a teacher, head teacher, and college lecturer.

Moira taught creative writing part-time at the University of Glamorgan. She has written seven books on the creative arts for teachers, (Belair). She also writes stories and poems for children, Wish a Wish, (Poetry Space), is the most recent. She has tens of poetry collections for adults in publication, Geese and Daughters (IDP) and Imagine a Kiss, (Dempsey & Windle) are her most recent. Moira also has a very special book, Looking through Water, (Poetry Space) - a sensitive and thoughtful collection of poetry documenting her failing sight that is being recorded by the RNIB as a Talking Book for the blind.

Moira has over 100 titles and more than 2500 poems to her credit!