THE MAILBOX

The Mailbox : Letters to Grandpapa is a book for every reader.

It's a G-rated novel about a young woman, Emma, who is a librarian and this is her story. After losing her beloved grandfather, she writes him letters and places them in a mailbox next to his gravesite.

Emma loves music!

And art.....

She spends time with the children at the orphanage having harvest pumpkin carving parties to help them celebrate.

Emma enjoys
gardening at home
and with the children
at the orphanage

*She has fallen in love
with twin girls she wants to adopt .*

Emma becomes an award-winning author of a book, Mother Gertie : A Mother Goose that is an award-winning children's picture book by author Terrie Sizemore.

Emma may not be a prima ballerina, but she sure does enjoy dancing.

And she finds time to sled ride with the children.

And makes Christmas
special for all the children too.

Terrie Sizemore has loved writing and literature all her life. She created A 2 Z Press for others with the same dreams and aspirations. The Mailbox : Letters to Grandpapa was created as a tribute to her own Grandpapa who was the most special person in her life and helped her achieve all her dreams as well as encouraged to enjoy every aspect of her life.
